2. Officer Reports

Seneschal – THL Amber MacRae

Recent Activities:

On April 12, 2025, the Society officially established a new peerage for excellence in ranged martial pursuits, such as archery and thrown weapons. This new order is called the Order of the Mark, with its badge described as "a set of four arrows inverted in saltire, tips to center." The Crown of the Outlands is now seeking recommendations from the populace for individuals to be considered as the first inductees (Premiers) into this new peerage. Recommendations can be submitted through the Award Recommendation system, where "Mark" is now listed as an option. Submitters are asked to include the candidate's local group information. The Crown values the wisdom and insight of the populace in making these important selections.

1. Social Media Changes

Facebook live videos now disappear after 30 days — they'll be archived to YouTube by the Kingdom.

Only current Seneschals and Social Media Officers will remain admins on group Facebook pages.

If your group's Seneschal doesn't have access, contact:
socialmedia@outlands.org

Be mindful of SCA social media rules, especially if your profile says “Works at SCA.”

2. Youth Activities

Page School (daily youth activities) will be offered at Grand Outlandish, similar to Battlemoor.

Teens will eventually help run it — volunteers (adults and youth) are needed.

3. Waivers

Waivers are still required at every practice, even with QR codes now in use.

4. Conduct & Behavior

Members are encouraged to report ongoing inappropriate behavior, even if it seems minor.

Follow the "three strikes" rule — if someone repeats concerning behavior three times, let the Kingdom Seneschal know.

5. Hamlets

Only 1 Officer required, Seneschal

They need to have a relationship with another local group.

This can be any group at any level.

These are like an incipient shire or canton

This is in the experimental phase per Society.

At the moment, a group has to be closed and then they can petition to become a Hamlet.
